Definition of terms:

Reliable Written Records. Taxpayers' records must include the following information:

- 1) Name and address of donee organization,
- 2) Date and location of the contribution,
- 3) Description of the property,
- 4) FMV of the property (or cost, if taxpayer required to or elects to reduce FMV for appreciated property),
- 5) Information related to contributions of partial interests in property, if applicable and
- 6) Terms of any conditions attached to the donation, if applicable. [Reg. §1.170A-13(b)(2)(ii)]

Acknowledgment. Written acknowledgment from the charity must include a description of the property or amount of cash donated plus a statement as to whether the donor received any goods or services (with a good faith estimate of value) in connection with the donation. [Reg. §1.170A-13(f)]

- If the donor received intangible religious benefits, the acknowledgment must say so, although no valuation of such benefits is required.
- Taxpayers must receive the acknowledgment before the earlier of (1) the date the return for the year of the donation is filed or (2) the due date, including extensions, for filing the return.
- The acknowledgment can be either a paper copy or in electronic format, such as an email addressed to the donor. (IRS Pub. 1771)
- If for taxpayer's out-of-pocket expenses, the statement must describe the taxpayer's services and state whether the charity provided goods or services in consideration for out-of-pocket expenses.

Pledge Card. The donor must obtain a pledge card or other documentation from the charity that also states that the charity does not provide goods or services in return for any contribution made to it by payroll deduction.

Cash donations of less than $250. The donor must maintain either a bank record (most likely a cancelled check, wire transfer acknowledgement or credit card record) or a written communication from the charity showing the name of the donee organization, and the date and amount of the contribution. [IRC §170(f)(17)]

Noncash donations of less than $250. Receipt not required when it is impractical to obtain one from the donee organization (for example, items are left at a charity's unattended dropbox).

Property donations over $500. Records must also include information on how and when the property was acquired and the cost or adjusted basis (not required for property held 12 months or more). Vehicles valued at more than $500 and later sold by the charity require additional substantiation.

Clothing and household items. Donations of clothing and household items must be in "good used condition or better."
